

Photograph of Yellow Crocuses planted by the pupils of St Martin's Primary School in Garrison, Co Fermanagh, in the shape of a Star of David.

Yellow crocuses were plants in memory of all of the children who died in the Holocaust. The yellow colour of the flowers reminds us of the yellow star the Jews had to wear under Nazi rule. The flowers remind us of ALL of the children put to death by the Nazis.